Nationally
Accredited

School-wide (Early Childhood, Elementary Grades, Middle School)

Tuition pays only a part of the cost per child of providing school personnel and physical facilities. St. Mark's congregation provides the remainder of these costs as part of the congregation's mission of Christian education.

A family has options for making tuition payments:

- Option 1: One payment made by July 1, 2025. No fee applies. A 2% discount applies.
- Option 2: Two payments through automatic withdrawal. A one time $40.00 fee applies.
- Option 3: Four, six or ten monthly payments through automatic withdrawal. A one time $58.00 fee applies.
- Option 4 (only applies to a 52 week schedule enrollment): Twelve monthly payments through automatic withdrawal. A one time $58.00 fee applies.

Multi-child discounts apply. Need-based tuition assistance is available for K-8 students only. Apply for financial aid through TADS. A list of additional options and how to apply are available on our website at www.stmarkseureka.org/mysmls, open the "Enrollment" section. For assistance contact Donna Riendeau at driendeau@stmarkseureka.org

Three items must be complete before the Early Childhood or K-8th grade child may begin attending class:

- 1: The Early Childhood or K-8th grade Registration Fee must be paid in full.
- 2: A tuition payment agreement for Early Childhood through 8th grade must be completed and submitted to the office.
- 3: The immunization, health information, and physician's exam form must be submitted to the office.

Fees for Early Childhood (EC)
